Sales & Marketing Representatives

A great opportunity has arisen for international students to start an internship in the coach and travel sector.
In this role students will learn to become a key point of contact between an organisation and its clients: answering queries, offering advice and introducing new products.

You will need enthusiasm, stamina and determination.

Responsibilities of the job vary according to the season and the company needs but generally include:

- undertaking qualitative research activities
- developing ideas and pinpointing business problems
- assisting with promotional activities
- telephone canvassing, inbound and outbound calls (English and own language)
- Customer Management
- helping the Marketing Manager organising and hosting presentations and customer visits

Qualifications and training

We will provide a good training, giving the chance to acquire a relevant experience in customer service, travel, tourism, marketing, sales and IT.

Key skills

- writing and verbal communication skills.
- minimum B1 English level required (intermediate)
- proactive and can do attitude
- perseverance
- excellent interpersonal skills
- creativity
- organisational skills