

EUROPEAN YOUNG HERITAGE PROFESSIONALS FORUM

Zadar, Croatia, 20 to 24 May 2019

PUBLIC AWARENESS ACTIVITY

The European Young Heritage Professionals Forum is an event organized by UNESCO in partnership with the European Union within the joint project '2018 - European Year of Cultural Heritage: Engaging Youth for an Inclusive and Sustainable Europe'. It will take place from 20 to 24 May 2019 in Zadar, Croatia to explore potential synergies and challenges of working on tangible and intangible cultural heritage in the European context (<https://whc.unesco.org/en/news/1942>).

The Forum will be a five-day meeting of young heritage professionals from all the European countries that will exchange experiences and reflect about heritage preservation taking two examples of the Croatian heritage (the Defensive System of Zadar and the Dry Stone Walling listed in 2017 and 2018) as case study.

In the context of the forum the young heritage professionals will develop a public awareness activity and for such the organizers are requesting the collaboration of a group of students from the University of Zadar. The communication language will be English. The activity will take place in the historic centre of Zadar in two different sessions:

- First activity on Tuesday, 21 May from 15.45 to 16.30. Meeting point: in front of the Arsenal Zadar (Trg Tri bunara 1, Zadar)
- Second activity on Friday, 24 May, from 9.00 to 13.00. The meeting point will be announced the day before.

All the students interested on participating on the activity can join the following WhatsApp group (<https://chat.whatsapp.com/D7rmU8sB4BmKseXDhlp8tg>) sending their name.

The students who wish to join the event are kindly requested to attend both sessions and a thanks letter will be provided at the end of the second session.

Looking forward to meet you all!

Hosted by