Subject: New measures and activities at the University of Zadar in the context of the current epidemiological situation caused by spreading of the COVID-19 disease

Esteemed colleagues,

Taking into consideration the decision of the Government of the Republic of Croatia and of the Headquarters of the Civil Protection of the Republic of Croatia, we kindly ask you to comply with the following instructions:

1. regular university teaching in the University premises is suspended for two weeks, starting from the moment of receipt of this instruction until Monday 30 March 2020;
2. Heads of the Departments need to organize and coordinate different forms of teaching using the Merlin or other system that facilitate e-communication between teachers and students according to the Instructions on the usage of the electronic systems for the organization of teaching;
3. all scientific, professional and administrative activities will continue to be carried out regularly in the University premises;
4. in case of any doubts or questions please contact vice-rector Prof. Nedjeljka Balić Nižić, PhD (students) on the cell phone number 099/426-87-43, or vice-rector Prof. Josip Faričić, PhD (employees) on the cell phone number 099/313-31-75.

The University management regularly monitors the news and recommendations issued by the competent institutions and you will be notified on time in case of new instructions by the competent national authorities.

Sincerely yours,

Rector:

Prof. Dijana Vican, PhD
