MFAA Talk

Tuesday, April 5, 2018

The MFAA talk is a monthly event inviting a guest speaker for a talk and a discussion to foster learning among Fulbright alumni, connect them to people that matter in the community, and provoke conversations enhancing their daily life and work.

“Identity and Religion and the Perception of Islam in Europe Today”

Professor Dunja Brozović Rončević

Department of Ethnology and Cultural Anthropology

University of Zadar, Croatia

05 April 2018, 6 – 7 pm at MACECE

7, rue d’Agadir – Hassan

The event is open to all Fulbright alumni and is sponsored by the MFAA Board

Contact : Taoufiq FECHTALI toufiqr@yahoo.com

Dunja Brozović Rončević received her undergraduate and her doctoral degrees from the the Faculty of Philosophy in Zagreb. She also studied at the Instituto di Glottologia in Padua and at Harvard. She teaches in the Department of Ethnology and Anthropology at the University of Zadar, where she gives courses in linguistics and is affiliated with the “European Studies: Languages and Cultures in Contact” Program.

She has served at the Institute for Linguistic Research of the Croatian Academy of Sciences and Arts, is a member of the “General Slavic Linguistic Atlas” and “European Linguistic Atlas” projects at the Institute for Linguistic Research, and is a founder and Deputy Head of the Center for Adriatic Onomastic Research at the University of Zadar, where she is also a founder of Ethnology and Anthropology studies.

Since 2003 she has been Director of the Institute for Croatian Language and Linguistics where she runs the "Croatian Language Network Treasury" project. She is also a member of the Board of Directors of the International Council of Onomastic Sciences (ICOS - Uppsala, Sweden), the Croatian Academy of Sciences and Arts, and the the Onomastic, Ethics, and Lecture committees of the HAZU. She is editor in chief of the Croatian Language and Linguistics Research Journal, Onomastica Croatica, and a member of the international editorial board of Rivista Italiana di Onomastica. Since 2005, she has served on the Croatian Standard Language Council of the Ministry of Science, Education, and Sports.